

Dr. Arnhold Thorsten

Standards and International Certification Scheme for Equipment using Hydrogen Technology -

Explore an overview of the safety critical issues of the new hydrogen technologies and the concepts for mitigation of the respective risks. The actual status of international standardization will be reported as well as the IECEx activities for conformity assessments based on these standards.

